

Recruiting Industry Newswire

Wednesday, May 6, 2009

Trilogy Search Non+Profit Fills Senior Position At the Stupski Foundation

Burlingame, CA-based executive search firm Trilogy Search Non+Profit has placed Andrew Calkins as Senior Program Director, Learning Community/Efficacy Network for the Stupski Foundation. Prior to joining Stupski, Calkins was a Senior Vice President with Mass Insight Education & Research Institute, one of the nation's most respected state-based reform organizations and increasingly a major voice on school turn-around. Calkins earned his BA from Harvard College and was a Henry Fellow at Pembroke College in the UK. The Stupski Foundation is committed to transforming public education in this country.

Trilogy Search Non+Profit is a retained executive search firm that specializes that specializes in recruiting senior-level executives and company directors for nonprofit and for-profit businesses.

330 Primrose Road, Suite 402
Burlingame, California 94010
voice 650.685.2600 fax 650.685.2601
www.trilogyssearch.com